

Australian Government

FREE WORKSHOP

The new workplace relations system, including the new collective bargaining and unfair dismissal frameworks, commenced on 1 July 2009. Parts of the Fair Work Act 2009 concerning agreement making, industrial action, compliance, general protections and right of entry also commenced at this time.

With the support of the Commonwealth Government, Restaurant & Catering Australia, in conjunction with State Restaurant & Catering Associations, is conducting a series of FREE workshops to provide industry specific information on the new workplace changes. The workshops will cover:-

- What is changing under the Fair Work Act?
- How does the treatment of unfair dismissals change?
- What is Collective Bargaining under the Fair Work Act?
- How does enforcement work in the new system?
- Do the changes apply to me?
- What role does Fair Work Australia Play?
- What is a Multi-Employer Agreement?

Workshops of approximately two and a half hours duration will be held in metropolitan and regional locations throughout Australia and are open to anyone. Attendees will receive information kits containing a workshop manual, fact sheets and other resources for the workplace.

To register for a seminar tailored to the restaurant and catering industry phone 1300 722 878 (Option 1) or go to www.restaurantcater.asn.au
